A photograph of three elderly women standing outdoors at a campsite. The woman on the left wears a patterned headscarf, sunglasses, a white cardigan over a black patterned top, and holds a beer bottle. The woman in the middle has short white hair, wears sunglasses and a red jacket over a grey dress, and also holds a beer bottle. The woman on the right has grey hair, wears a light green cardigan over a patterned dress, and holds a beer bottle. In the background, there are green trees, a white caravan, and a wooden picnic table. A red cooler with a white cross logo and text is on a motorbike in the foreground on the right. The text 'Vi hade flest rätt på tipsrundan' is overlaid in yellow at the bottom left.
